

Summer is the deadliest time for teen drivers . . .

More free time • Later curfews • “Cruising” with friends • Speeding
“Piling in” teen passengers

Parents, Here are some tips to keep your teen driver safe during the summer months:

- ✓ Have your teen sign a summer safe driving contract
- ✓ Say no to “cruising” and “joy riding”
- ✓ Limit the number of teen passengers (Va. law limits first year drivers to one passenger)
- ✓ Set curfews & don’t allow driving after midnight
- ✓ Be selective about who your teen rides with
- ✓ Require teens wear a seat belt and obey speed limits

For more tips & a safe driving contract, go to www.yovaso.net

Sponsored by (insert school name and club name)

Sample Newspaper Ad for Parents

Summer is the deadliest time of year for teen drivers . . .

More free time • Later curfews • “Cruising” with friends • Speeding
“Piling in” teen passengers

Summer Survival Checklist for Teens

- ✓ Buckle up on every ride
- ✓ Drive the speed limit
- ✓ Obey the midnight curfew law
- ✓ Avoid “cruising” and “piling in” your friends
- ✓ No texting or cell phone use while driving

For more tips on summer driving, go to www.yovaso.net

Sponsored by (insert school name and club name)

Sample Newspaper Ad for Teens